tonybuzbee Recognize this guy? This is a picture of the Weapons Platoon Commander, Alpha Company, First Battalion, Fourth Marines from our old Western Pacific cruise book. Despite a coordinated and aggressive effort that has included harassing my kids, contacting my clients and former clients to encourage them to sue me, contacting my colleagues or former employees asking if I've "abused" them, showing up at my current employees' homes to harass them, filing frivolous cases against me and my law firm, defaming me with outrageous assertions to anyone who will listen, and having mysterious people follow me and my family, I'm still THAT guy. I won't be bullied or intimidated. People will see through this effort to discredit me and my clients and the truth will be revealed. I also won't allow anyone to scare my clients into silence.

Sunlight is the best disinfectant and I am quite certain the sun is coming.
